

For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Thomas Dowling
863-292-3744 • tdowling@polk.edu

News from Polk State College

PSC to Host “Invisible Children’s 2010 Legacy Tour” on March 12

Polk State College’s Chain of Lakes Collegiate High School (COL) will host the “Invisible Children’s 2010 Legacy Tour” on March 12 at 7 p.m. in PSC’s Student Center, Winter Haven campus.

Norman Okot, a respected educator from Northern Uganda, will be speaking about the plight of kidnapped children forced to become soldiers in his war torn country. His son, Jolly Okot, is one of the Invisible Children’s primary contacts in Uganda and the star of the documentary The Rescue, which was shown at PSC last year at a screening that was attended by over 100 people.

Invisible Children works to create jobs, rebuild Uganda’s schools and end the civil war in Uganda. The COL Leadership Cadre has also supported the Invisible Children’s Book Drive and collected 17 boxes of books in January. Invisible Children uses the proceeds from their Book Drive for their education efforts in Uganda. The free event is open to the public.

For further information, call 298-6800.

-30-

Thomas Dowling

Polk State College
Coord. College Information

- Phone: 863-292-3744
- Fax: 863-297-1072
- (Internal Ext. 5359)
- tdowling@polk.edu