Issue 3, May 2017

Spring is a time when we start planting new flowers in our gardens, do some spring cleaning and de-cluttering in our homes but it is also a time for gatherings with friends and family.

At Anita's we will be having some special celebrations in the month of May starting with Cinco de Mayo, Friday, May 5th and we will be open on Sunday, May 14th for Mother's Day. Treat your mom to a delicious meal with a glass of champagne or a margarita.

Some of the entrees that will be featured at our Cinco de Mayo celebration include the traditional Carne Asada Plate, Tricolor Fajitas, Tricolor Super Burrito, Tacos, Enchilada plate, and a newly introduced dish which is called Molcajete- a stone filled with Carne Asada, Chicken, Mexican Sausage, cheese, roasted cactus in a blended home made salsa served with a side of rice, beans, guacamole and tortillas. (see picture below) You will not be disappointed with the molcajete!

Everyone have a wonderful month with your family and friends and we hope to see you soon at Anita's!
