SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES

12:15 - 1 p.m.

July 18 - The Way We Worked: Labor and Florida History

Dr. Steve Noll interprets how the nature of work has changed (and not changed) as Florida has become one of the nation's most important states. Florida has always been about more than fun in the sun and tourists on the beach. This presentation examines the ways Floridians worked throughout the state's history, focusing on labor in the 19th and 20th centuries.

Aug. 15 - Our Story, Ourselves: Telling Your Family's Story

Have you intended to collect your family stories, but never knew how or where to start? Your questions are about to be answered. This entertaining and informative presentation will give you invaluable tips for collecting, compiling and even analyzing your family's stories. You will also discover why to collect them and in what format to preserve them. Best of all, you will get motivated to start. Dr. Caren Neile is a performance storyteller and affiliate professor at Florida Atlantic University, and has appeared throughout the country and abroad. She co-hosts The Public Storyteller, a weekly segment on South Florida public radio WLRN 91.3 FM.
