

Holiday Concert at the Lake Wales Public Library features The Three Strings

The 3 Strings, a brother and sisters trio from Highlands County will present the Lake Wales Public Library's 3rd annual Holiday Concert, featuring the talented young musicians.

The 3 Strings will perform in the Lake Wales Public Library's main lobby at 4 pm on Monday, December 11. This concert is supported by Sandy's Music Girls and the Lake Wales Library Association.

The 3 Strings are a string trio comprised of siblings who love playing music together. The Three Strings have received wide acclaim.

They were invited to attend the Fine Arts Summer Academy in Nashville, Tennessee where they played on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry, backing musicians including Todd Smith of Selah, the Annie Moses Band, and Josh Turner.

In March of 2017, The 3 Strings sisters, Phebe and Catherine, were accepted into the Music For All National Honors Orchestra. This fall, Phebe, Catherine, and Edward have applied to return to the MFA National Honors Orchestra for the 2018 season. They are currently fundraising to cover the expenses.

Phebe is 15 years old and an award-winning cellist. Catherine is 14 years old, and can be credited with being the person who "started it all." At the age of 4 she decided she wanted to play the violin. By age 6 she was taking lessons, and hasn't looked back.

Edward is 12 years old. He has played the viola for 3 years. As a member of the Young Artist String Orchestra, he has had the opportunity to perform at multiple venues throughout Highlands and Okeechobee counties.
