Explore Volunteer Opportunities at Bok Tower Gardens May 17

Lake Wales, FL - Founder Edward Bok was a passionate advocate for volunteerism and often referred to the third portion of his life as “service to others.” This tradition continues with a Volunteer Fair at Bok Tower Gardens on Thursday, May 17 from 5pm to 7pm in the Visitor Center. All participants must enter through the front entrance gate before 6:30pm.

One of the most beautiful and peaceful spots in Florida, volunteers at Bok Tower Gardens are essential to the mission of this historic destination and assist with stewardship in a variety of roles.

Positions are currently available for individuals, students over the age of 8 years old and corporate groups.

Interested participants can RSVP for the Volunteer Fair by calling 863-676-1408 x2258, sending an email to jlandmichl@boktower.org or register online at <https://boktowergardens.poll daddy.com/s/volunteer-fair>.

Over 500 volunteers provide valuable services to Bok Tower Gardens including docent tours, garden tasks, saving rare and endangered plants, assisting with learning and education initiatives and more.

Volunteer positions are available in the following areas:

- Education
- Cafe
- Facilities and Maintenance
- Gift and Plant Shop
- Horticulture
- Pinewood Estate
- Visitor Services (front desk greeters and shuttle drivers)
