

Rignanese & Associates, PLLC's motto is "Practicing Law Locally, Thinking Globally." The firm's managing partner, Cynthia Rignanese, has reached her milestone goals in her quest as an world traveler to 107 nations. She just returned from a journey marking Antarctica as her Seventh of Seven Continents!

It is unusual to have accomplished so much travel while practicing law full time. She finds that personal and business conversations are insightful while globe-trotting. Lessons learned while traveling enhance legal, negotiation and business skills at home.
