

Webber Professors Fening and Muniz Visit, Guest Teach Courses at Prestigious Chinese Universities

Babson Park, Florida
For Immediate Release

For two weeks in the month of June, professors Dr. Fred Fening and Ms. Joanne Muniz were Webber International University ambassadors of education at Henan Finance University in Zhengzhou, China. Both professors taught over 300 students in the subjects of Managers & Management and Western Financial Accounting, respectively, while acting in the capacity as ambassadors for a unique student exchange program between the two universities. These English-based courses and University outreach also extended to Xinyang Normal University, where the professors toured the campus and met with university administrators and 300 prospective business students, explaining the educational programs offered by Webber in efforts to enhance the friendship, cooperation, and student exchange between Webber and Xinyang Normal University where over 25,000 students attend this prestigious institution.

During their stay, the professors were able to visit such culturally historic sites as the Shaolin Temple and Erqi Square in Zhengzhou, and were able to ride on the country's high-speed train which travels at speeds up to 187 mph! Beyond these sights, Fening and Muniz also enjoyed the many delicacies Zhengzhou and Xinyang had to offer, including hot pots, Beijing Duck, and even some American cuisine!

As Webber International University hopes to expand their student exchange programs between these two universities, they are excited to welcome a contingency of Chinese administrators and faculty from Henan Finance University who will be visiting Webber's main campus in Babson Park in August and September to further their understanding of western collegiate instruction. Webber's administration, staff, faculty, and especially Professors Fening and Muniz, are excited to welcome these educators and look forward to an exciting educational visit for these visitors, their faculty and staff, and their students as well!
