Thousands of Ballots to be Mailed to Polk County Voters

POLK COUNTY, FL (July 25, 2020) – Supervisor of Elections, Lori Edwards explained that over 90,000 Polk County voters have been receiving their Vote by Mail ballots in the mail. Ballot certificate envelopes must be signed by the voter and returned by 7 pm on August 18th in order to count. “No stamp is necessary to return the ballot as the return postage is pre-paid,” said Supervisor of Elections, Lori Edwards.

Ballots can be mailed or dropped off to Election Headquarters, 250 South Broadway Avenue in Bartow, or dropped off at the Election Operations Center, 70 Florida Citrus Boulevard in Winter Haven. Ballots may also be dropped off at one of the nine convenient Early Voting sites.

For more information, or to request a Vote by Mail ballot call (863) 534-5888 or visit PolkElections.com.
