Upcoming Class

Our vacation is over!! Vacations are never long enough but I'm anxious to get back to class and seeing all of you!!! We have lots of classes / projects scheduled for the next few months and I know you all won't be able to attend them all, in some cases take home kits will be provided. If there are some special projects you would like to see done, please feel free to let me know!! Always looking for ideas. Many of our classes are paper craft related, however I love to slip in a few different projects. So... keep your eyes peeled to our newsletters, and especially our Facebook page (thekraftykitten) and also you will see samples in our shop.

Card Class with Bonus project

This is a reminder that our card class is scheduled for Wednesday August 19th, which is our first day back from vacation. We will be doing 4 cards for Christmas shown similar to the ones in the picture. You will have an assortment of background stamps to use to make your cards unique. The cost is $15.00 and there will be an added extra SURPRISE BONUS project. You won't want to miss this welcome back class. Class will start at 11:00. As always, I'd appreciate it if you let me know if you will be attending the class so that I will prepare enough kits for everyone.
As with all other classes, we will be practicing social distancing.

The very next class will be the September Magnetic Calendar class upcoming on Saturday the 22nd. I know we have a lot of classes scheduled for the next few months and ya'll can't be at them all, so in many cases (such as the calendars and frame kits) you will be able to get the kits to take home, although I won't be there to assist you. Papers may be different than the ones shown in this newsletter. I'll be sending another email out shortly about this class.
